On October 22-24, 2018 the National Indian Justice Center will conduct a training session on the Indian Child Welfare Act: The Next Two Years. This training session will focus on the next two years under the current administration including the impacts of the BIA's 2016 Regulations on the implementation of the Indian Child Welfare Act, as well as legal challenges to the constitutionality of ICWA. Participants will receive a training manual, and a certificate of achievement upon completion of the training session.

This Session Will Examine

- Historic Foundation for the Adoption of the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978
- Review of the BIA Regulations
- Review of the cases questioning the constitutionality of ICWA
- Overview of the Challenges to the Proposed Regulations
- Intersection of Regulations and certain State law implementing ICWA
- Determination of a Child's Membership in a Tribe
- Notice Requirements and Timelines
- Good Cause to Deviate from ICWA Placement Preferences
- Applicable Standards of Evidence
- Guidance on interpreting ICWA definitions and terminology
