Nicole Lim, J.D.,
Executive Director, CIMCC

NICOLE LIM, Executive Director, California Indian Museum & Cultural Center is a lawyer, educator, and Pomo tribal member. Mrs. Lim is developing CIMCC into a multi-media museum in Santa Rosa, Ca. She received a BA in Peace and Conflict Studies from the UC Berkeley and a JD from the University of San Francisco, School of Law. She has served the California Association of Museums, Government Relations Committee since 2011, and Board of Directors since 2014. She is the Secretary for the Board of Directors for the National Tribal Geographic Information Support Center (NTGISIC).

TOOLS TO PROTECT SACRED LANDS & MONITOR CULTURAL RESOURCES

This session examines legislative and policy tools created to meet the challenges that Native Americans face in seeking to protect a spiritual site and other culturally relevant resources. Additionally, the training provides an introduction to monitoring at road construction, energy development and other public projects to ensure that mitigation measures are implemented and cultural resources are protected. Case examples will be discussed. Participants will receive a comprehensive reference manual and a certificate of achievement upon completion of the course.

THIS TRAINING WILL FOCUS ON

- The Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA)
- The National Historic Preservation Act
- The latest developments, emerging issues, and opportunities regarding NAGPRA
- How to coordinate and integrate compliance with Section 106 of NHPA and Section 3 of NAGPRA
- Archaeological Resources Protection Act
- CA Environmental Quality Act
- American Indian Religious Freedom Act
- Roles and Responsibilities of Cultural Resource Monitors and Agencies
- Collaboration between Native Americans and Archaeologists

Joseph Myers, J.D.,
