

LETTERHEAD

CRIMINAL RECORD STATEMENT

In order to be considered for a criminal record exemption waiver, please complete this form entirely. When answering the following questions, please keep in mind that a conviction is any plea of guilty, or nolo contendere (no contest), or a verdict of guilt.

Have you ever been convicted of a crime in California? .....     YES     NO

Have you ever been convicted of a crime in another state, federal court, Military, or jurisdiction outside of the U.S.?.....     YES     NO

Criminal convictions from another State or Federal court are considered the same as criminal convictions in California.

If you answer YES, give details on the next page indicating the nature and circumstances of each crime and the date and location in which each crime occurred.

You must disclose convictions, including reckless and drunk driving convictions even if:

1. It happened a long time ago;
2. It was only a misdemeanor;
3. You didn't have to go to court (your attorney went for you);
4. You had no jail time or the sentence was only a fine or probation;
5. You received a certification of rehabilitation;
6. The conviction was later dismissed, set aside, or the sentence was suspended.

NOTE: If the criminal background check reveals any conviction(s) that you did not disclose on this form, your failure to disclose the conviction(s) may result in an exemption or denial.
